HOME for INVALIDS.—Dr. E. E. DENNISTON, Northampton, Masa, would respectfully invite public attention to his establishment for the relief and cure of CHRONIC DISEASES, which during an existence of eight years, has attained unequivocal success. It has been his effort, while making his house a "Home" for those who are under his care, to use in their behalf a knowledge which an experience of 30 years has ena-sled him to sequire. Among these a strict appliance of these hygienic laws commonly called "Water-Cure," stands prominently forward; long experience and observation having convinced him that, while much may be done by active interference to save life in the acute stages of disease, a judicious management of the vital powers can alone be successful in that large class of prevailing chronic sliments.

An arrangement has been effected with Prof. Vergues of New-Tork, by which Dr. D. is enabled to employ the Electro Chemical Bath in all cases where it may be deemed necessary.

The establishment is situated within one and a half mite of the railmod depot in Northampton. The grounds contain about forty acres; the house is large and commedious and is sitted up for the accommodation of forty patients. Perms ten dollars per week for board and professional attendances for one patient occupying a single room. The coat of double rooms varies in proportion to their size.

The following card from the leading professional sentlemen of Borson is offered as a testimonial of their confidence in the course of treatment pursued by Dr. Deunisten.

"We are induced to recommend Dr. Deunisten."

"A construction of the profession of the various temedial treatment according to the exigencies of the various remedial treatment according to the exigencies of the individual case."

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY of the AGE!
Mr. KENNEDY of Roxburry has discovered in one of our common patture weeks a remedy that cures EVERY KIND of HUMOR, from the worst Scrolula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his comession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the akin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of fingworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of feedmatian.

Three to four bottles will cure the worst case of acrofula.

A bearfit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day, as that a common weed growing on the pastures and along old stone walls, should cure every homor in the system; yet it is a fixed fact. If you have a home, it has to start. There are no if nor ande, hums nor has, about it, sufting some cases, but not yours. I paddied over a thousand bettles of it in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetta. I gave it to children ever yound in the subject to a sick headache one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed; they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it; on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encommum of it that ever man listened to.

A MARRIED WOMAN—SOLE TRADERS STATUE OF 1848.
Rebecce Freeman ... John Orser.
SLOSSON J.—This suit is brought by Mrs. Preeman, the wife of Sam. J Freeman, aga not the Sheriff.
Before her marriage, Mrs. Freeman possessed in her own right a sum of money, an ounting to several hundred dollars. On the late of May, ext after marriage, she took a lease of a stone which she farmished with millibery goods. The purchase of these somewhat more than enhausted her espacies property, as appears from the fact that they were insured for $1,800.

In the subsequent Autumn the Sheriff levide on this property, under a jue genent recovered against Mrs. Freeman's handsad, and this action is for damages in consequence of such levy.
It appears that the husband had no beanness of his own, tired in the house and assisted more or less in his wife's store, but his name did not appear in connection with it, nor did he have any control over its management.

This taste of facts distinctly presents the question, whether a married woman can convert nerself into a sole trader and earry on the burliess with a fund indisputably her property at the time of the marriage, on see to hold the entities took, principal and interest, free from her husband's creditors.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

Before the statute of 1858, there is no protonce that a married woman had a right to carry on a separate trade. Even where her proporty was secured to her by an ante-nuptial or post-nuptial settlement, she had no right to employ it in tale manner. The principle was, that a husband has a right in the earnings of his wife, and that they are applicable to the payment of his cloth; of course, he could refund that his right for a valuable consideration, which, in the case of an ante-nuptial settlement, might be the subsequent marriage. But, unless on approaches, authorizing her to carry on a separate business were introduced in the deed of settlement and supported by a valuable consideration, his right remained intact.

Does our statute after the law on this point? This is the first time the question has been distinctly presented; but after com-

Dore our statute after the law on this point! This is the first time the question has been distinctly presented; but after carsulty considering the question and examining all the dicts, we are at the opinion that there is nothing in the Statute of 1845, or in the amendment thereto, which can be baid to give a married woman right to deal with her acparate property and trade on its only, and that the law remains as it was before that Statute. The same construction has been made in Fenneyivania, of a Statute with is somewhat broader than ours, and in Walcomein of one containing provisions essentially the same. Judgment for deferdant.

PRACTICE—TERM YEES—WHEN ALLOWABLE, Alexander Y. Stewart V. Henry H. Mornage.

OAKLEY, C. J.—This case involves a question of costs under the eighth subdivision of Statute 377 of the Code, which allows "To either party, for every Circuit or Terms, at "reached or postponed, accluding that at which it is tried or "heard, ten delians."

When a cause is reached in the Calendar and passed, naither party appearing—not an uncommon event at General Term on term fees be charged! I state a postponement of such case, within the nearing of the Code! We think not.

A cause, when reached may be disposed of in several ways by the Court, on an application properly made, or by a mutual understanding or agreement between the parties. If but one party mate an appearance, he may call it on and have it demisted. But where no answer is made, when the cause is callednised.

Gentlemen must therefore apply to the Court for a postpone-ment, or by acquiseding in its going down, they are to be taken as having waived their right to term fees. PRACTICE—BILL OF PARTICULARS—TIME NOT EN-PRACTICE—BILL OF PARTICULARS—TIME NOT EN LARGED.

Geo. W. Platt, et al., agt. Samuel P. Townsond.

Judge SLOSSON—Li is admitted that before the Code where an order for a bill of particulars was granted, it operates as a suspension of the time to plead in, because the object of demanding it was to furnish information for the pleader, and it was considered as constituting a part of the pleadings.

But it is crattened that, granting the theory of a bill of particulars as to be the same now as under the old practice, the rules governing pleading are now a matter of positive statute; that twenty days is the limit fixed within which a pleading must be served, which is only enlarged by section 40 of the Code; and that the 2th rule of the Supreme Court, which governs have, does away with the old rule in this particular. Believing that otherwise the 2th rule would be entirely decroyed, we hold, in otherwise the 2th rule would be entirely decroyed, we hold, in otherwise the 2th rule would be entirely decroyed, we hold, in otherwise the 2th rule would be entirely decroyed, we hold, in otherwise the 2th rule above reasoning, that the time fland for a pleading to be served in cannot be enlarged by demanding a life of particulars. Order of Special Term is the after reversed.

Hiram A. Briggs v. James Gaunt.—Eight per centurely the proposed of the programm for the residue with interest, otherwise new trial.
